

Hard To Count Populations by Southwest Border State

Developed by Dr. William O'Hare and Edwin Quiamboia of the Annie E. Casey Foundation, from the Census Bureau's Planning Database.

States Ranked by Percent of State Population Living in Hard-to-Count Areas*

Rank	State	State Population Living in Hard-To-Count Areas*	Total Population in State	% Population in State Living in Hard-to- Count Areas
46	Arizona	1,395,113	5,130,309	27.2%
46	Texas	5,661,540	20,851,377	27.2%
49	California	10,393,982	33,870,923	30.7%
50	New Mexico	622,260	1,818,918	34.2%

Based on data from the 2000 Census

*Hard-to-Count Areas defined as census tracts with HTC scores above 60